By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For putting the Laws in Execution against Papists and Non-Jurors, and for commanding all Papists, and reputed Papists, to depart from the Cities of London and Westminster, and from within Ten Miles of the same; and for confining Papists, and reputed Papists, to their Habitations; and for putting in Execution the Laws against Riots and Rioters.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS we have received undoubted Intelligence of the Arrival of the Pretender's eldest Son in France, and that Preparations are making at Dunkirk for an Invasion of this Kingdom, in Concert with disaffected Persons here, which Invasion is to be supported by the French Squadron that has been some Time Cruizing in the Channel. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the first Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for the better securing the Government, by disarming Papists and reputed Papists, It was enacted, That it should and might be lawful for any two or more Justices of the Peace, who should know or suspect any Person to be a Papist, or should be informed that any Person was, or was suspected to be a Papist, to tender, and they were thereby authorized and required forthwith to tender to such Person so known or suspected to be a Papist, the Declaration set down and expressed in an Act of Parliament made in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preserving the King's Person and Government, by disabling Papists from sitting in either House of Parliament, to be by him made, repeated, and subscribed; and if such Person so required should refuse to make, repeat, and subscribe the said Declaration, or refuse, or forbear to appear before the said Justices, for the making, repeating and subscribing thereof, on Notice to him given, or left at his usual Place of Abode, by any Persons authorized in that Behalf, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the said two Justices, he was in and by that Act prohibited to have or keep in his House, or elsewhere, or in the Possession of any other Person to his Use, or at his Disposition, any Arms, Weapons, Gunpowder, or Ammunition, other than such necessary Weapons as should be allowed to him by Order of the Justices of the Peace at a General Quarter Sessions, for the Defence of his House or Person; and that any two or more Justices of the Peace, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, by virtue of that Act, might authorize and empower any Person or Persons in the Day Time, with the Assistance of the Constable, or his Deputy, or the Tythingman or Headborough where the Search should be, to search for all Arms, Weapons, Gunpowder, or Ammunition which should be in the House, Custody, or Possession of any such Papist or reputed Papist, and seize the same for the Use of their said late Majesties, and their Successors. And further, that no Papist, or reputed Papist, so refusing or making Default, should, or might have or keep in his own Possession, or in the Possession of any other Person to his Use or at his Disposition, any Horse or Horses which should be of the Value of Five Pounds to be sold: And that any two or more Justices of the Peace, by Warrant under their Hands, and Seals might and should authorize any Person or Persons, with such Assistance as aforesaid, where the Search should be, to search for and seize, for the Use of their said late Majesties and their Successors, all such Horse and Horses which should be above the Value of five Pounds to be sold: And whereas by another Act made in the said first Year of the Reign of their said late Majesties King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for the abrogating of the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths, all Persons who should refuse to take the Oaths therein directed to be taken, after the Tenders thereby directed to be made, and should refuse to make and subscribe the said Declaration

claration, in the said Act of the 30th Year of the said late King Charles the II^d. should suffer all Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, as a Popish Recusant Convict, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever. And whereas in and by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of our Royal Father, His late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for the further Security of his Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown, in the Heirs of the late Princess Sophia, being Protestants, and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and secret Abettors, It is enacted, That it should and might be lawful to and for two and more Justices of the Peace, or any other Person or Persons, who should be by His Majesty for that Purpose specially appointed, by Order in the Privy Council, or by Commission under the Great Seal, to administer and tender the Oaths in the said Act appointed to be taken, to any Person or Persons whatsoever whom they should or might suspect to be dangerous or disaffected to his Majesty or his Government; and if any Person or Persons, to whom the said Oaths should be so tendered, should neglect or refuse to take the same, such Justices, or any other Person or Persons specially to be appointed as aforesaid, tendering the said Oaths, should certify the Refusal thereof to the next Quarter Sessions of the County, Riding, Liberty, City, Borough, Town-Corporate or Place in which such Refusal should be made, and the said Refusal should be recorded amongst the Rolls of that Sessions, and should be from thence certified by the Clerk of the Peace of such County, Riding, Liberty, City, Borough, Town-Corporate or Place into our Court of Chancery or Kings-Bench, Court of Sessions, or Court of Justiciary, in Scotland, there to be recorded amongst the Rolls of the said Courts, in a Roll or Rolls there to be provided and kept for that Purpose only; and that every Person so neglecting or refusing to take the said Oaths should be from the Time of his Neglect or Refusal, taken, esteemed and adjudged a Popish Recusant Convict, and as such to forfeit and be proceeded against. And to the Intent and Purpose that no Person might avoid taking the several Oaths in the said Act particularly mentioned upon any Pretence whatsoever, It is thereby further enacted, That it should and might be lawful to and for two or more Justices of Peace, or any other such Person or Persons, who should be by his Majesty for that Purpose specially appointed by order in the Privy Council, or by Commission under the Great Seal, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, to summon any Person to appear before them at a certain Day and Time therein to be appointed, to take the said Oaths, which said Summons should be served upon such Person, or left at his Dwelling-house or usual Place of Abode, with one of the Family there; and if such Person who should be so summoned should neglect or refuse to appear according to such Summons, that then, upon due Proof to be made upon Oath of the serving the said Summons (which Oath such Justices, or any other Person or Persons specially to be appointed as aforesaid, are by the said Act enabled to administer) such Justices, or any other Person or Persons specially to be appointed as aforesaid, are thereby required to certify the same to the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County, Riding, Liberty, City, Borough, Town-Corporate, or Place, there to be entred upon the Rolls of the said Sessions. And if such Person who should be so summoned to take the said Oaths as aforesaid, should neglect or refuse to appear and take the said Oaths at the said General Quarter Sessions, the Names of the Persons so certified being publicly read at the first Meeting of the said Sessions, that then and in such Case, such Person should be taken, esteemed and adjudged a Popish Recusant Convict, and as such to forfeit and be proceeded against, as if such Person had actually refused to take the said Oaths, and the same should be from thence certified by the Clerk of the Peace of such County, Riding, Liberty, City, Borough, Town-Corporate, or Place, into the High Court of Chancery or King's Bench, Court of Session or Court of Justiciary in Scotland, there to be recorded amongst the Rolls of the said Court, in a Roll or Rolls there to be provided and kept for that Purpose only. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, every Popish Recusant Convict is to repair to the Place of his usual Dwelling or Abode, and not at any Time to remove above five Miles from thence, unless thereunto licensed according to the Direction of that Act, or of a subsequent Act made in the third Year of the Reign of the late King James the First. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the third Year of the late King James the First, intituled, An Act to prevent and avoid Dangers which may grow by Popish Recusants, it is provided, That all Popish Recusants indicted or convicted of Recusancy, should depart from the City of London, and Ten Miles Compass of the same, under certain Penalties therein mentioned. And whereas by one other Act of Parliament made in the first Year of the Reign of the late King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for the removing Papists and reputed Papists from the Cities of London and Westminster, and Ten Miles Distance from the same, it is enacted, That for the better discovering and removing all Papists and reputed Papists out of the said Cities, and Ten Miles of the same, it should and might be lawful, and it is thereby required, that the Lord Mayor for the Time being, and every Justice of the Peace of the City of London, and for the City and Liberties of Westminster, Westminster, and Borough of Southwark, and of the Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent and Essex, within their respective Counties, Boroughs and Limits, should from Time to Time cause to be arrested and brought before him, every Person or Persons (not being a Merchant Foreigner, or such other Person or Persons as the said Act excepts) within the said Cities, or within Ten Miles of the same, being Papists or reputed to be Papists, and tender unto him the Declaration mentioned in the Statute made in the Thirtieth Year of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Preserving the King's Person and Government, by disabling Papists from sitting in either House of Parliament: And in Case such Person, upon such Tender, should refuse to repeat, make and subscribe the said Declaration, and should, after such Refusal, remain, continue, or be within the said City or Cities, or Ten Miles Distance from the same; that in every such Case, he or she should forfeit and suffer as a Popish Recusant Convict by the Laws heretofore established, should or might suffer or forfeit; and that every Justice of the Peace should certify all such Subscriptions, and the Names of all Persons refusing to subscribe, upon Tender as aforesaid, under his Hand and Seal, into the Court of King's Bench the next Term, or at the next Quarter Sessions, where such Taking, Subscribing, or Refusal should happen. Now for the Preservation of the Publick Peace, and for the better Defeating the malicious and wicked Designs of our Enemies, we have thought fit, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, to issue this our Royal Proclamation, hereby commanding and requiring all our Justices of the Peace, and all others whom it may concern, that they do, with the utmost Diligence and Application, put the said Laws strictly in Execution against Papists and Non-Jurors; and that they tender to them the said Oaths and Declaration, and take from the Refusers thereof their Houses and Arms; and that they do also put strictly in Execution all other Laws made against Papists, reputed Papists and Non-Jurors: And the respective Justices of the Peace, and others concerned to execute our Commands herein, are hereby required to certify an Account of what they shall do, pursuant to the same, to us in our Privy Council. And we do hereby further strictly charge and command all Papists and reputed Papists (except Merchant Foreigners and such other Persons as in the said before-mentioned Act are excepted) on or before Friday the Second Day of March next, to depart out of the said Cities of London and Westminster, and Borough of Southwark, and from all Places within Ten Miles Distance from the same. And we do hereby strictly charge and command the Lord Mayor of London, and all Justices of the Peace of our Cities of London and Westminster, and of our said Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent and Essex, that they do make diligent Search and Enquiry for, and with all Vigour proceed according to the said recited Act of Parliament, against all and every Papist and reputed Papist, who shall be found within the said Cities of London and Westminster and Borough of Southwark, and within Ten Miles Distance of the same, after the said Second Day of March next, contrary to the Tenor of the said Act, and the Purport of this our Royal Proclamation. And we do further strictly charge and command, that immediately after the said Second Day of March next, the Constables, Church-wardens, and other Officers within the said Cities and Places, do go from House to House in their several Parishes, Hamlets, Constabularies and Divisions respectively, and there take an Account of the Names and Surnames of all such Persons as are Papists or Popish Recusants, or reputed so to be, as well Household-ers as Lodgers or Servants, and to carry a List of their Names to the two next Justices of the Peace, who are hereby required to send for and proceed as aforesaid against all such of them as are not Merchant Foreigners, or other the Persons in the said Act excepted. And we do further strictly charge and command all Popish Recusants, Natives and Denizens, who shall be above the Age of Sixteen Years, that they do, according to the Statutes in that Behalf made, repair to their respective Places of Abode, and do not thence remove or pass above the Distance of Five Miles, unless thereto licenced according to Law. And we do hereby farther strictly charge and command all our Judges and Justices of the Peace, and other Magistrates, that they do use their utmost Endeavours to prevent and suppress all Riots, Tumults and unlawful Assemblies, and to put in due and strict Execution all Laws made for preventing, or for the more speedy and effectual suppressing and punishing the same, and that all our loving Subjects be aiding and assisting therein.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the Twenty Fourth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and forty three, in the Seventeenth Year of our Reign.
God save the King.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, has been presented to his Majesty. Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Common Council of your City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled, humbly beg Leave (on the Occasion of the Intelligence your Majesty has communicated to your Parliament of an intended Invasion from France, in Favour of the eldest Son of the Pretender to your Realms) to approach your Throne with the warmest and most unfeigned Assurances of our stedfast and inviolable Fidelity and Attachment to your Sacred Person, Government and Family.

We cannot look upon the Insolence of this Attempt without the greatest Horror and Detestation, from the fullest Conviction of our Hearts, that our Religion, Laws, Liberties, Properties, every Thing that can be thought dear or valuable to Englishmen, are inseparably connected with, and can be only secured to us by the Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Person, the Continuance of your auspicious Government, and the Succession in your most illustrious Family.

Engaged by the most affecting Interests, bound by the strongest Ties, influenced by the warmest Gratitude, and the clearest Sense of Duty, we are fully determined, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to contribute every Thing within our Power towards the Support, Maintenance, and Defence of your Royal Person and Government, and your undoubted Right and Title to the Throne of these Kingdoms, against all Pretenders and their Adherents, and all other your Majesty's Enemies whatsoever.

And we doubt not but your Majesty, supported by the general Affection of a brave and free Nation, with the Blessing of God on the Justice of your Cause, will easily disappoint and baffle the important Attempts of your Enemies, and return the Mischief on their own Heads, to their Shame and Confusion.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty third Day of February, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

St. James's, February 27.

This Day the Right Honourable the Earl of Arran, Chancellor of the University of Oxford, with Dr. Hodges the Vice Chancellor, and his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, attended by several Heads of Houses, Doctors in the several Faculties, Masters of Arts, and other Members of that Learned Body, waited on his Majesty in their Formalities, and being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, Mr. Vice Chancellor presented the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford.

Most gracious Sovereign,

THE undoubted Intelligence receiv'd by your Majesty of an intended Invasion of these your Kingdoms, ought to awaken in all your Subjects an Attention to so interesting an Alarm, and unite their Endeavours effectually to disappoint and defeat an Attempt which threatens to deprive us of all that is valuable to ourselves, and all that is worth transmitting to our Posterity.

Our Invaders well know, from their own Constitution, the small Value of uncertain Possessions, every Hour liable to the Demand and Seizure of an arbitrary enterprizing Prince: And the Success of your Majesty's Arms will soon, we doubt not, fully convince them that we are too Wise and Brave a People, to part with real for imaginary Property, and are not so infatuated as to purchase the ignominious Exchange, at the vast Expence of pure Religion and British Liberty.

The solid and disinterested Principles of Piety and Loyalty, have ever engaged your University of Oxford in the Defence of their Sovereigns upon all important Emergencies; and your Majesty may securely rely upon the steady and inviolable Attachment of those Persons, who will ever be guided by the uniform Influence and Direction of such laudable Rules of Conduct and Action.

Permit us therefore to assure your Majesty of all the Assistance we can contribute on our Part in this critical Conjuncture, which we trust will not be vain or ineffectual, as we promise ourselves that Heaven will hear our earnest and continual Prayers for the Preservation of your sacred Person, the Prosperity of your Royal and Illustrious House, and the successful Progress of your Arms.

Given at our Convocation-House the Twenty Third Day of February, in the Year of our Lord 1743.

To which His Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Address. The Affection you shew for my Person and Government, and your Concern for the Preservation of our happy Constitution in Church and State, give me great Satisfaction. The University may always depend upon my Favour and Protection.

They all had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

St. James's,

St. James's, February 27.

This Day the Merchants of the City of London waited on his Majesty with the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants of the City of London.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants of your City of London, having observed, by your Majesty's most gracious Message to your Parliament, that Designs are carrying on by your Majesty's Enemies, in Favour of a Popish Pretender, to disturb the Peace and Quiet of these your Majesty's Kingdoms; think it our indispensable Duty, not to omit this Opportunity of expressing our just Repentment and Indignation at so rash an Attempt.

We have too lively a Sense of the Happiness we enjoy in our Religion and Liberties under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, and of the flourishing Condition of our Trade and Commerce, even in the midst of War, under your paternal Care and Vigilance, not to give your Majesty the strongest Assurances of our highest Gratitude for such invaluable Blessings; nor can we doubt, but by the Blessing of God upon your Majesty's Arms, and the unanimous Support of your faithful Subjects, the Attempts of your Enemies will recoil upon themselves, and end in their own Confusion.

We therefore humbly beg Leave to declare to your Majesty, our unshaken Resolution, that we will, on this critical Conjunction, exert our utmost Endeavours, for the Support of publick Credit, and at all Times hazard our Lives and Fortunes, in Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and for the Security of the Protestant Succession in your Royal Family.

To which His Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you very heartily for this dutiful and affectionate Address. This seasonable Mark of Zeal and Attachment to my Person and Government, from so considerable a Body of my Trading Subjects, cannot but be most agreeable to me, and must, at this Time, greatly conduce to support the publick Credit, which I shall always use my utmost Endeavours to preserve and maintain.

They were very graciously received, and all had the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.

Hague, March 1, N. S. Yesterday the following Memorial was presented to the States General by Mr. Trevor, his Britannick Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary, demanding the Succour of 6000 Men, stipulated by the Treaties, to be immediately sent over into Great Britain. The States General, notwithstanding their having been before assembled in the Morning of that Day, were pleased to appoint an extraordinary Meeting at Seven in the Evening, in order to receive the said Application from Mr.
 Trevor, and immediately, upon the Receipt of it, sent their Agent to his House to acquaint him, that their High Mightinesses had unanimously consented to his Majesty's Requisition of the Six Thousand Men, and had directed Orders to be forthwith sent to their Admiralties to accelerate the Manning of such Ships of War as were in a Condition of being the soonest put to Sea; adding the strongest and most cordial Professions of their High Mightinesses unalterable Attachments to his Majesty's Person and Government.

High and Mighty Lords,

THE common Interests and solemn Engagements, so often renewed, which constitute between your High Mightinesses and the King of Great Britain an Union, more natural and intimate, than any now subsisting between any other allied Powers in Europe, do not leave his Majesty any Room to doubt, but that your High Mightinesses will answer the Demand, which I have now the Honour to make in his Name, with an Heartiness and Zeal, proportioned to the Dissatisfaction and Concern, with which you must have heard of the Proceedings that occasion it. Your High Mightinesses are already informed of the Indignity offered to his Majesty and the whole English Nation by France, in receiving into her Dominions, and concealing in a mysterious Manner for above the Space of a Month, the Eldest

Eldest Son of the Pretender. Your High Mightinesses have also too good Informations, to be ignorant of the suspicious Measures taken before or after this Attempt, upon the Dignity of the King my Master, and upon the Religion, and the Liberty of my Country. The great Naval Armaments made by France, without her having any Enemy to fear for herself, or any acknowledged Ally to succour by Sea; the Motions of her Officers and of her Troops all along the Coasts of the Channel; the extraordinary Provision made by her there of all Sorts of Warlike Stores; the Stopping, in all her Ports, from Britany quite to Flanders, of all Vessels proper for Transports; the Embarkation of Musquets, Field Pieces, Chevaux de Frise, Bridles, Saddles, and all Kinds of Arms proper for a Descent; the Sailing of the Brest Squadron, and its Motions, which can no longer be misunderstood: In short, the Assemblage of all the abovementioned Preparatives at Dunkirk, a Rendezvous the nearest to, and which gives the justest Cause of Suspicion to Great Britain: All these Circumstances, I say, would have been sufficient Proofs of the evil Intentions of France against the Person and Crown of the King, either for invading his Dominions, or for stirring up and fomenting Divisions in them, though she had not besides by a Declaration just made to his Majesty's Minister at Paris, renounced, in a Manner, the Treaties which subsist between the two Crowns, and particularly that of 1717, made with the Concurrence, and under the Guaranty of your High Mightinesses.

Such Measures, and such Appearances, are more than sufficient to give the King my Master a full Right to demand, as I have the Honour to do by the present Memorial, in a solemn and pressing Manner, the Granting of the Succour which he is intitled to by Virtue of the Perpetual Defensive League signed the 3d of March 1678, and the Separate Articles thereof, conformably to the Sense and to the Interpretation of the Guaranty and reciprocal Succour which was finally determined and settled by an Act expressly made between the two Powers the 3d of April 1716; the Whole renewed and confirmed by the last Treaty which your High Mightinesses concluded in the Year 1728 with his Majesty, who now happily reigns, sometime after his Accession to the Crown.

It is, High and Mighty Lords, upon Motives so pressing, and in Consequence of Engagements so clear, as those which I have just laid before your High Mightinesses, that I have the Honour to desire that you would immediately dispatch your Orders, that a Body of 6000 Men of your national Infantry, with a suitable Number of Officers, do repair with all Diligence to Willemstadt for the Service of his Majesty, where I have Orders from the King to hold in Readiness the Vessels necessary for transporting them.

His Majesty commands me moreover to require of your High Mightinesses, that, till Circumstances may enable you to afford more effectually that Succour which you are engaged to furnish by Sea, by Virtue of the Treaties before mentioned, you would be pleased to give Orders to some of your Vessels of War, which are in Readiness, and nearest at Hand, to convoy the said Body of 6000 Men into England.

Although, by the Blessing of God, his Majesty has an assured Resource against the Attempts of his Enemies, whosoever they be, in the vigorous Measures which he has already taken, and in the approved Fidelity of his Subjects, he has nevertheless thought himself under an Obligation to take this additional Precaution, in Regard to the Dignity of his Crown, to his Paternal Tenderness for his People, to the Constancy of his Endeavours for the Publick Liberty, and to the greater Security of the Protestant Religion; all which are threatened at one and the same Time by the extraordinary Preparations which are making almost within Sight of his Kingdoms.

The Confidence which the King has always had, and which his Majesty will always have, in the so often experienced Friendship and good Faith of your High Mightinesses, makes him firmly to depend upon an immediate and favourable Answer to this Demand, and such an one as his Majesty cannot but expect from true Friends and Allies, religious Observers of their Engagements, and zealous Defenders of Religion and Liberty; the only Sources, as well of the Glory and Happiness of the two Nations, as of the Hatred of our envious Neighbours.

Done at the Hague, the 29th of February 1744. Signed

Robert Trevor.

Hague, March 3. Yesterday Morning their High Mightinesses the States General resolved, that the Body of Troops to be furnished, pursuant to Treaties, to Great Britain, should consist of the following Regiments of Foot, which are to be forthwith embarked at Willemstadt to be transported to England.

Count Vander Lippe's, in Garrison at Bois-le-duc.

Bedarides's, in Garrison at Utrecht.

Eck Van Pantaloen's, in Garrison at Gorcum.

Lindtman's, in Garrison at Bergen op Zoom.

Mulert's, in Garrison at Oveyssel; and, Glinstra's, in Garrison at Arnhem.

The above-said Regiments are to be commanded by Lieutenant General Smiffart, Major General Rumpf, and the two Brigadiers, Roode Van Heckeren and Van Leyden. The Negotiation of this State for the Saxe Gotha Troops, viz. two Regiments of Foot, and one of Dragoons, is upon the Point of being concluded. The Duke of Aremberg talks of leaving this Place for England on Thursday next. The Archduchess and Prince Charles take their Route to Brussels through Bois-le-duc and Breda, and Orders are sent by the States General for escorting and lodging their Highnesses in their Passage through the Territory of the Republick.

Stockholm, Feb. 3, O. S. The King of Sweden is not yet come to Town, and as the Weather is mild and pleasant, his Swedish Majesty, jefty, we believe, will make use of it in taking the Pleasure of Hunting for a few Days more. The Prince Royal is gone from Upsal towards the Frontiers of Dalicaria, in order to remove some strange Impressions which the Inhabitants of that Province had taken concerning him.

Vienna, Feb. 19, N. S. The Archdutchess sets out with Prince Charles for Flanders on the 23d Instant; the Queen accompanies her Highness to Stokereau, two Posts from hence, but the Great Duke goes to Prague. Count Esterhafi went to Dresden the Day before Yesterday. It is said that the Spaniards who were at Civita Castellane, are retired into the Abruzzo. Marshal Traun is appointed and declared in Form to succeed the late Marshal Khevenhuller.

Vienna, Feb. 22, N. S. The Archdutchess and the Prince received the Compliments of the whole Court and Town the Day before Yesterday. General Botta is confined to his House, and the Counts Wurmbrand and Hardegg, the one President, the other Vice President of the old Aulick Council, are with three other Persons of lower Rank, constituted to interrogate him, and to pronounce Sentence upon the Interrogation and the Evidence which has been produced by the Court of Petersbourg.

Copenhagen, Feb. 22. The late Rigour of the Season has occasioned an Epidemical Illness here, accompanied with a Fever, which though not dangerous, is exceedingly troublesome. The King of Denmark has himself a Touch of it, and keeps his Chamber on that Account: His Majesty however held his Council Yesterday as usual, and rested well last Night.

Copenhagen, Feb. 24. His Majesty held a Council again Yesterday, and dispatched Business as usual, but did not appear in Publick, being still troubled with his Cold, which however, 'tis hoped, he will the more easily get rid of, as it is not attended with any Fever. An Act or Convention for restoring the good Intelligence between Denmark and Sweden, and for disarming reciprocally, having been prepared and settled by the Danish Ministers and Count Tessin, the same was sign'd by them, as is said, Yesterday.

Dantzick, Feb. 22. We have Advice here, that the late Regent in Russia, the Princess Anne of Mecklenbourg, had been conducted, with her Family, from their Confinement in the Fortrefs of Dunamunder, in sleeping Waggon, higher up into the Country, and that their German Domesticks are all sent home, and are now on their Way to Memmell.

Deal, February 27.

This Morning Sir John Norris, with the Fleet under his Command, came to an Anchor in the Downs.

Whitehall, February 28.

The King has been pleased to appoint Field Marshal John Earl of Stair, to be Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces in South Britain.

Whitehall, February 28.

The King has been pleased to make the following Promotion of General Officers in his Army, viz. Majors General. Alexander Irwin, Richard St. George, John Campbell. Brigadiers General. William Merrick, the Right Honourable the Earl of Craufurd, George Churchill, Henry Skelton, John Johnson, Richard Ingoldsby, Edward Wolfe, Anthony Lowther, John Wynyard.

Whitehall, Feb. 28.

Yesterday William Cecil, Esq; after having been examined by a Committee of Lords of the Privy Council, was committed Prisoner to the Tower for High Treason.

General Post-Office, London, Feb. 8, 1743.

Whereas the Post Boy, going out with the West Mail from this Office, was this Morning, between Five and Six o'Clock, attacked on the Highway at the Staling Place on the other Side of Turnham Green, by a single Highwayman, who took the said Post Boy into a Field adjoining to the Road, and opened the Mail, and carried off the Exeter and Plymouth Bags: The Person, who committed this Robbery, is a lusty Man, and had on a Blue Great Coat, with his Hat tied over his Head; and he rode on a large, lean Bay Horse, and made off for Aston the Oxford Road.

This therefore is to give Notice, that whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted the Person who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make a Discovery whereby the Person, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General, George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Whitehall, Feb. 25, 1743-4.

Whereas a Treasonable Paper was, on the 21st Instant in the Morning, stuck on the Window Shutter of the House of John Brown, near the North Gate of the Town of Leicester; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing the said Paper, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Mayor of Leicester does hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Samuel Belton, Mayor.

Whitehall, Feb. 10, 1743.

Whereas it has been represented to his Majesty, that Letter, dated the 23d of January last, was sent by Persons unknown, directed to the Lady Drury at Pinkney Hall, near Fakenham in Norfolk, threatening to set her House on Fire; and to kill her, unless she should put Eighty Pounds in a Place described in the said Letter; His Majesty, for the better Discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the Writing or Sending of the abovementioned Letter, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices; so as he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement for making such Discovery, a Reward of Forty Pounds is hereby promised to be paid on Demand, by David and John Jones, Merchants at Fakenham in Norfolk, or by the Rev. Mr. John Wright, at Thesford in the said County.

John Wright.
